

I support unlicensed broadband access as this proposal would allow "smart" radio transmitters to operate in unused parts of the TV spectrum. This spectrum has characteristics that would dramatically enhance the quality of low-power community networks.